

Lehigh Valley Summer Scavenger Hunt!

NOTE: You must either share a photo of yourself at each attraction (you MUST be in the photo) to our LINC Facebook page or tag us in your photos on Instagram in order to be considered. Let us know when you've completed at least 6 of these 15 items (see contact information above) to receive a prize!

DEADLINE: Saturday, 8/31

Visit the Martin Guitar Factory in Nazareth

See how a guitar is made from start to finish at Martin Guitar. Public tours run 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Catch a Movie at America's Oldest Drive-In Movie Theatre

Shankweiler's has been in continuous operation since 1934 and is now open 7 days a week for the rest of the summer!

Explore the 36th Annual Musikfest

Musikfest is America's largest non-gated free music festival. This year you can expect over 500 concerts and upwards of a million guests. The festival will run from August 2nd-11th.

Check out the Museum of Indian Culture's Roasting of Ears of Corn Festival

The Museum of Indian Culture hosts Pennsylvania's oldest Native American Indian festival this year on August 17th & 18th, bringing a fun weekend of drumming, singing, dancing, food, demonstrations, and more!

Let Your Creativity Run Free at The Crayola Experience in Easton

Discover the magic of color with many interactive and creative activities. The Crayola Experience allows visitors to explore art and technology, express their creativity and experience color in a whole new way.

Hike up the Hill at Blue Mountain Resort

Blue Mountain has summer fun locked down with numerous outdoor recreational activities. Check out their Summit Aerial Park high ropes course, outdoor laser tag, mountain biking, disc golf, camping, and more!

Shop the Easton Farmers Market

From bread and baked goods, to prepared foods, local wine, honey, and more! Take a stroll around Center Square, downtown Easton, to see what goodies are in season.

Das Awkscht Fescht

August 2 - 4 check out one of the largest antique and classic car shows at Macungie Memorial Park. Three days of outdoor fun for the entire family!

Jump for Joy at a Trampoline Park

Visit Skyzone or Freefall for a range of physical activity fun, including a large arena of trampolines, dodgeball, obstacle courses, and more!

Tour the Lehigh Valley Zoo

Home to more than 325 animal ambassadors representing over 125 species, this zoo has become a treasured community landmark. The zoo hosts year-round family-friendly events and activities, educational programs, and camps.

Ride 'round The Great Allentown Fair

Beginning August 27th, one of the nation's oldest and one of the state's largest fairs returns. Stop by the Allentown Fair for an exciting time riding rides, playing games, seeing shows and concerts, and indulging in international cuisine.

Drop in at the Allentown Art Museum

This vibrant cultural center offers great variety among its collections and exhibitions, educational and popular programs, and public events to embrace the broadest possible audience in the Valley. Did we mention select "Free Admission" days?

Head Down the D&L

The Delaware and Lehigh multi-use trail spans 165 miles from the mountains of northeast Pennsylvania through the Lehigh Valley and Bucks County. Big enough for all your favorite outdoor recreational activities!

Stop and Smell the Roses at the Allentown Rose Garden

One of the many local treasures—the Rose Garden, amongst its trees and architecture, brings all the quiet, serene tranquility for those "great escape" days.

Catch a Ball Game at Coca-Cola Park: Home of the Lehigh Valley IronPigs!

Recognized for its intimacy, fan-friendly atmosphere and architectural design, Coca-Cola Park strives to continuously provide fans with the best and most affordable family-friendly entertainment experience.